All wines are directly imported from France; Burgundy, Rhone, Bordeaux, Loire, Alsace and Languedoc – Roussillon with the intention of offering both quality and value. Many are produced organically or bio-dynamically and are marked with ♦*.

With the climate change in recent vintages, we are seeing both reds and white wines offer a charming immediacy. Generally speaking in Burgundy, cooler microclimates have done very well and I have sought many new wines from outside the classic like St Aubin, Hautes Cotes, Auxey Duresses, St Romain, Marsannay, Givry, and Macon among many more. They have really overperformed: their sweet, juicy tannins give them a succulence and charm that makes them well worth considering. With such a large list I have marked a few of my "Coup de Coeur" with ♥ !

We have also imported a selection of excellent South African, Italian and Spanish wines, all of which are well worth trying. Wines are chosen to deliver a good blend of quality, at excellent prices.

Spending is no guarantee of quality, however, careful tasting is!

KELLY'S SPECIAL HOUSE SELECTION

Kelly's selection Red, White and Rose are wines from the Rhone Valley, Loire and Burgundy. The Rhone wines were specially labelled and bottled for Kelly's. The label was commissioned and painted by artist William Crozier.

Jura - Domaine Grand

The Grandes have been winemakers from father to son since 1692. Today, it is Emmanuel and Nathalie who manage the 10.5 ha of vines in the Jura. Together, they practice organic and bio-dynamic farming. Having tasted the wines with one of Frances top sommelieres, the wines were a must buy for both the quality and value.

The local grape varieties mingle with those of the relatively nearby Burgundy, such as Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. But Jura's wines owe their originality and reputation to their native varieties Poulsard, Trousseau and Savagnin and to their very distinctive, evolved, sometimes even oxidized character. The famous yellow wines, aged for six years years under a film of yeast are in this category. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is also one of the Jura's great traditions. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is another of the Jura's specialities.
