All wines are directly imported from France; Burgundy, Rhone, Bordeaux, Loire, Alsace and Languedoc – Roussillon with the intention of offering both quality and value. Many are produced organically or bio-dynamically and are marked with  .

The 2022 vintage will be a landmark year for many reasons; good winter rainfall was followed by hardly any rain from May to November 2022 with drought and record high temperatures, causing an extremely early harvest. Despite this, the quality is exceptional and quantities are higher than 2021, but still remain below average. In Burgundy, cooler microclimates have thrived, and I have sought many new wines from outside the classic like St Aubin, Hautes Cotes, Auxey Duresses, St Romain, Marsannay, Givry, and Macon, among others. With such a large list I have marked a few of my “Coup de Coeur”  !

We have also imported a new selection of excellent Italian wines from my recent visits to Tuscany and Umbria and for the first time the great wines of Franz Keller in Germany.

All the wines are chosen to deliver a good blend of quality at excellent prices. ‘Spending is no guarantee of quality; however, careful tasting is!’

KELLY'S SPECIAL HOUSE SELECTION

" No celebration can be complete without those salvoes of corks, those spurts of froth, those luminous bubbles in the glass and that intoxicating smell of spring time which marks the libations of the King of the Wine"

Franck Bonville Champagne

 Organic

Champagne Franck Bonville is one of the Champagne's jewels. Olivier converted into reasoned farming a bit more than two years ago. "My objective is to get an upright and pure raw material. We harvest when maturity enables to preserve acidity and we pick the grape when not too ripe, for a potential alcohol content between 9 and 10.5°. A choice that allows us to keep a maximum freshness and elegance in our future cuvées."

Between passion and precision, the ambition of the François Carillon Domaine is to produce fine, elegant and gourmet wines, representative of the exceptional terroirs from which they come.

The Marchand and the Grillot families are both well rooted into the Burgundian soil. Focused primarily on their home soil of Gevrey-Chambertin, but with holdings as well in nearby Morey-Saint-Denis and Chambolle-Musigny, fifth generation winemaker Jacques Marchand brings extensive experience to produce red wines of character. Now aided by his son Etienne and daughter Marion, the nine hectare estate strives to produce traditional style wines, respecting the varietal and the terroir, great wines of quality and value.

Founded by Henri Jacqueson in 1947, succeeded by his son Paul in 1972 and joined by Paul's daughter Marie in 2006, long been recognised as one of the very best in the Côte Chalonnaise. They are one of very few producers in the village to hand-pick everything. Extremely proficient winemaking and judicious use of new oak (20% for whites and 25% for reds) make for beautifully crafted, ripe, intense, sensual wines which have the class to belie their origins.

In 1985, Christine Dubreuil took over the estate and has played a significant role in modernising and elevating winemaking practices. The domaine produces a range of Burgundy wines, both white and red. These wines showcase the elegance, finesse, and complexity typical of Burgundian Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

Maison Marchand-Tawse - Beaune et Nuits

Organic

The story of the Maison Marchand-Tawse in Burgundy begins with the extraordinary story of Pascal Marchand, the French Canadian boy wonder, who in 1985 at 22 years old, took the reins of the Clos des Epeneaux in Pommard. He became an overnight sensation, and in the process pretty much defined modern Burgundy. The collaboration of Pascal with another French Canadian, Moray Tawse of the Tawse Winery in Niagara, one of Canada's most recognized wineries, gave birth to the new Maison Marchand-Tawse in 2011. We have worked with Pascal since his beginning in 1985, now a true legend of Burgundy.

Domaine Fernand & Laurent Pillot - Chassagne-Montrachet

In the mid 80's Laurent took over the running of Domaine Pillot, he transformed his family estate from grape growers to one of the more distinguished estates in the Côte de Beaune. Laurent has since transferred his winemaking responsibilities to his son, Adrien. The whites are precise and pure, and not lacking for body and generosity, while the reds are velvety and juicy, beautifully balanced even if drunk young on their expressive Pinot fruit. The domaine was rightfully heralded in Decanter Magazine as 'an address that deserves to be better-known'. Great value and real pleasure across their range.

Domaine Mongeard Mugneret - Vosne Romanee

Eight generations the Mongeard family has been established in Vosne Romanée right in the heart of the Côte de Nuits, producing a very traditional Burgundian style of wine. The vineyard has been known by the name Domaine Mongeard-Mugneret since 1945. The company is currently run by Vincent Mongeard who is passionate and committed to maintaining and improving the family's long standing reputation in the area. The property contains roughly 33 hectares of vineyards spread over 35 appellations. The vineyard is located in the mid-slope, often considered the most prime location in Burgundy. It is south-east facing on chalk and clay soils.

Domaine de la Vougeraie - Cotes de Nuits/Beaune

Organic & Bio-Dynamic

Based in Premeaux just south of Nuits St Georges, Vougeraie was created in 1999 when Jean-Claude Boisset of the Boisset group decided to group together all the vineyard holdings. Pascal Marchand was put in charge in 1999, with Bernard Zito in the vineyards, which were farmed biodynamically. Pascal produced powerful wines, fairly heavily extracted in his early vintages but clearly was subsequently moving to a softer approach in 2004 with Pierre Vincent and Sylvie Poillot.

Domaine Pierre Morey et Morey Blanc - Meursault

Organic & Bio-Dynamic

The wines of Domaine Pierre Morey are of the highest and most celebrated echelon in Burgundy. They have been farmed organically since 1993 and biodynamically since 1998. They are fine and structured yet ever so flavoursome. Pierre remains a constant presence here but it is now his daughter, Anne & Jean-Victor, who run the domaine and its associated négociant operation, Morey-Blanc. The latter is only distinguishable in that these vines are not owned by the family – handling and ageing are identical, taking place in the domaine's cellars.

Maison Benjamin Leroux - Beaune et Nuits

Organic & Bio-Dynamic (some)

At only 24 years old, Benjamin Leroux took over winemaking at Domaine Comte Armand from his old mentor, Pascal Marchand. Big shoes to fill for any young winemaker. Yet his first wines in 1999 were hailed as stars of the vintage. After leaving Comte Armand, he focuses on his own winery in Beaune where he has a small négociant business. These wines are pure class and offer some of the best, freshest styles in the region.

The Sarrazin brothers are known for making spectacular high-altitude Côte Chalonnaise Burgundy from the village of Jambles, a tiny hamlet just outside of Givry that is 300 meters above sea level. The brothers have gained a reputation over the last decade for being meticulous stewards of their high-altitude vineyards around Givry, Mercurey and Maranges. They craft wines that show a clarity of terroir, with all of the fruit destemmed. Great wines at great prices.

The Domaine Eric de Suremain is a 10.5-hectare family-run estate that was created in 1746 and has been handed down through the generations. Gwendoline, Dominique and Eric de Suremain work together to produce organically-certified wines on this estate that has been practicing biodynamics since 1996. The vines are cultivated with the greatest respect for the terroir, using traditional expertise to make Great Bourgogne Wines.

Eric Forest - Pouilly Fuisse

Eric has mere 5 hectares of vines, most of which were planted by his grandfather André in the early 1960s. He spent two years sharpening his style with Macon wunderkind Jean-Marie Guffens before returning to the tiny family holding on the steep limestone scree slopes below the dramatic outcrop of Vergisson to make his first vintage. A rich understanding of nature and biodynamics, much of it inherited from his grandfather, has informed his approach to viticulture and winemaking.

Louis Boillot - Gevrey-Chambertin

Louis shares his cellar with his other half, Ghislaine Barthod, under their home in Chambolle. He is part of the Boillot family from Volnay, hence his vineyard holdings in the Côte de Beaune. Since striking out on his own in 2003, he has been able to maximise the potential of his many disparate small parcels – he makes 16 wines from less than seven hectares – many of which are notable for the exceptional age of their vines. He expanded into Moulin-à-Vent in '13 and subsequently into Fleurie, fulfilling a long-held ambition. His and Ghislaine's son Clément is now officially in charge, while Louis focusses on his viticulture. "Non-intervention" is the word here, and Louis prefers to let his old vines speak for themselves.

Domaine Denis Mortet - Gevrey-Chambertin

A supremely talented vigneron, and currently at the helm of Denis Mortet, Arnaud Mortet is routinely praised for his work in the vineyards. Founded by his grandfather, Charles, in 1956, Arnaud took control in 2006 after the death of his legendary father, Denis. He continues his father's legacy of making refined, elegant wines along with his sister, Clemence, and his mother, Laurence. The majority of the vineyard care is accomplished by hand, including horses plowing all 1er and Grand Cru vineyards. A perfectionist by nature, Arnaud is making superbly finessed and precise wines as he continues to evolve this domaine.

Alain Gras has been working passionately since 1979 with a great respect for the land. Despite its young age, his domaine has quickly established itself as the standard-bearer for the village of Saint-Romain. It now extends over 30 acres, primarily located in Saint-Romain, Meursault, and Auxey-Duresses. Vinified with care and using traditional methods, the domaine's wines exemplify the character of this terroir, which Alain Gras sums up in three words: fresh, fruity, and elegant.

Domaine Emmanuel Rouget - Vosne Romanee

Domaine Emmanuel Rouget is a top producer, based in Flagey-Echézeaux, and owner of one of the most prestigious vineyards in Burgundy. Emmanuel Rouget is the nephew of the late Henri Jayet, a legendary wine maker from Vosne-Romanée. Emmanuel started working in his uncle's vineyards in 1976 and learned all the techniques from him. In 1996 Henri Jayet retired and transferred his vineyards to Emmanuel Rouget. This wines are still mythical, mainly because of Henri Jayet, but Rouget also continues to produce fabulous wines from his vineyards with a striking minerality and a beautiful ageing potential.

Domaine Forey - Vosne-Romanee

Domaine Forey was established in Vosne-Romanée in 1840 by Régis Forey's great-grandfather. Régis joined his father, Jean, at the Domaine in 1987. Two years later Régis took full control of the Domaine and has recently been joined by his son Quentin. Régis crafts charming and fine wines while however incorporating more masculinity and roundness into the wines leading to exceptional concentration and depth. On the palate, it is always an explosion of succulent fruit structured by the singular complexity of each terroir and a length that tells a lot about the aging potential.

Domaine Dupont-Fahn - Meursault

In the short time that Raymond Dupont-Fahn took over the family domaine, he has done an outstanding job in producing wines that always punch above their weight. The domaine is situated in the village of Taily in Meursault, managing a total of 10 hectares around Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Auxey-Duresses. Raymond has cut down on the use of new oak from 40% used by his father to just 10%, with barrels that are no older than three years. He eschews the use of any pesticides in the vineyards, aiming to be as sustainable as he can, and harvests slightly earlier to produce wines with better acidity and lower alcohol. Overall, these are wines that show incredible balance and precision – the raw talent in expressing the terroir from all his lieux-dits is very impressive, and we guarantee you won't find better valued Meursault elsewhere!

Domaine Ramonet - Chassagne-Montrachet

Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Mayer or the Romanee Conti in red," writes Clive Coates. This is the most foremost property in Chassagne, producing marvellous white wines of all levels from village wines through to the famed Montrachet. Established in the late 1920s by Pierre Ramonet, the domaine is now run by Jean-Claude Ramonet and his daughters Anne-France and Clarisse. Fruit from vines under 18 years old is excluded from the domaine's cuvées, and yields are severely restricted. The wines are vinified using traditional methods and then aged in oak (33% new) for 12-15 months. There is no battonage but there is extended lees contact prior to the first racking. Extraordinary wines!

Domaine Jean Thevenet et Fils - Macon

Organic & Bio-Dynamic

Domaine de la Bongran is no ordinary Mâconnais estate. Since Jean Thévenet took over the domaine in 1972, this Viré-Clessé producer has become a cult name – with Jean a pioneer of organics and minimal intervention, as well as the estate's unique wine style. Based in the village of Quintaine – a hamlet between Viré and Clessé, Jean Thévenet and his son Gautier produce distinct wines that offer astounding value. They pick later than many of their neighbours, producing a richer style of Chardonnay. The wines are naturally generous and full-bodied, but with incredible concentration and amazing freshness.

Le Bourgogne Vigne en Verre - Macon

Bourgogne de Vigne en Verre was established over 40 years ago, in 1981. Its founders recognized that it is extremely difficult to be efficient on the technical side, i.e. handling the wine growing and winemaking, and also be effective on the commercial side. They decided to focus on what they loved doing best, being in their vineyards and wineries, and to outsource the commercial side. We select some great wines here every year which offer but quality and price.

This dynamic 9.5-hectare property is generally recognised as the finest in the village. François and Isabelle Lumpp founded the domaine in 1991, with no inherited vines, and have now been joined by their children, Pierre and Anne-Cécile. The vineyards are planted with the finest materials and very close spacing. Viticulture is fanatical and yields are kept very low. They work as organically as possible during the early part of the growing season and employ limited doses of conventional treatments later on, to avoid tractor usage and compaction of their soils. The reds are sublime, pure, poised and beautifully balanced, ementing their status as some of Burgundy's finest, hidden wines and best bargains.

Domaine Francois Mikulski - Meursault

He inherited his first plots of Meursault in 1992 from his late uncle, Pierre Boillot. Since that time, he has relentlessly pursued his authenticity, purity and elegance through acute attention to biological balance in the vineyard and terroir minded élevage practices in the cellar. After meticulous sorting in the vineyards the grapes are de-stemmed and lightly pressed. Natural yeasts are used in the fermentation after which the wines undergo an élevage 10-12 months. François typically restrains his new oak use to about 20%, believing that excessive wood masks full expression of the terroir. (Full list May 2024)

Jura - Domaine Grand

The Grandes have been winemakers from father to son since 1692. Today, it is Emmanuel and Nathalie who manage the 10.5 ha of vines in the Jura. Together, they practice organic and bio-dynamic farming. Having tasted the wines with one of France's top sommelieres, the wines were a must buy for both the quality and value.

The local grape varieties mingle with those of the relatively nearby Burgundy, such as Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. But Jura's wines owe their originality and reputation to their native varieties Poulsard, Trousseau and Savagnin and to their very distinctive, evolved, sometimes even oxidized character. The famous yellow wines, aged for six years under a film of yeast are in this category. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is also one of the Jura's great traditions. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is another of the Jura's specialties.
