We are particularly excited about this year's 2026 Wine Selection, with a special focus on our Burgundy, Rhone, Bordeaux and Italian offering. All our wines are directly imported, many are produced organically or biodynamically and are marked accordingly.

This year we are delighted to welcome several wonderful new Burgundy producers to the list, including Pierre Vincent, Marchand-Grillot, Sarrazin and Louis Boillot. Their wines are attracting considerable attention. There is also a rather special wine to look out for: the very last vintage of Château de Monthelie from Eric de Suremain, with the vineyard now having changed hands. It is a lovely piece of Burgundy history and one we are delighted to have secured.

We, of course, also feature the wines of Paul Avril, Clos des Papes, whose work was recognised by La Revue du Vin de France, which named him Winegrower of the Year. This is a remarkable producer and a wonderful addition to our Rhône selection.

Availability across Burgundy is becoming increasingly difficult. The 2024 and 2025 harvests were both very small and, following the extreme heat and drought experienced this summer, early indications suggest that 2026 could bring another significant reduction in supply. This makes some of the wines on our list particularly worth securing while they are available.

Alongside Burgundy, we have worked hard to put together a diverse selection of wines from Bordeaux, the Rhône, Loire, Beaujolais and Champagne, all chosen to deliver a strong combination of character, quality and value.

We also introduce two excellent new Italian producers, Mazzei and Cotarella, following our recent visits and tastings in Italy. Their wines bring another dimension to the selection and reflect our continuing search for distinctive wines that offer outstanding quality at sensible prices.

We hope you enjoy exploring this year's selection and discover a few new favorites to enjoy over the coming months.

Spending is no guarantee of quality; however, careful tasting is!

CHAMPAGNE

" No celebration can be complete without those salvoes of corks, those spurts of froth, those luminous bubbles in the glass and that intoxicating smell of spring time which marks the libations of the King of the Wine"

Franck Bonville Champagne

Organic

Champagne Franck Bonville is one of the Champagne's jewels. Olivier converted into reasoned farming a bit more than two years ago. "My objective is to get an upright and pure raw material. We harvest when maturity enables to preserve acidity and we pick the grape when not too ripe, for a potential alcohol content between 9 and 10.5°. A choice that allows us to keep a maximum freshness and elegance in our future cuvées."

Domaine Louis Michel et Fils - Chablis

Organic

Guillaume Michel presides over this important 22-hectare estate, which has long been the reference for tank-fermented and matured Chablis, a style that the Michel family did much to popularize in the 1980s. Intense and tensile wines are the calling card here, pure and unadorned in style and consistently high in quality.

Domaine Paul & Marie Jacqueson - Rully

Founded by Henri Jacqueson in 1947, succeeded by his son Paul in 1972 and joined by Paul's daughter Marie in 2006, long been recognised as one of the very best in the Côte Chalonnaise. They are one of very few producers in the village to hand-pick everything. Extremely proficient winemaking and judicious use of new oak (20% for whites and 25% for reds) make for beautifully crafted, ripe, intense, sensual wines which have the class to belie their origins.

Domaine de la Vougeraie - Cotes de Nuits/Beaune

Organic & Bio-Dynamic

Based in Premeaux just south of Nuits St Georges, Vougeraie was created in 1999 when Jean-Claude Boisset of the Boisset group decided to group together all the vineyard holdings. Pascal Marchand was put in charge in 1999, with Bernard Zito in the vineyards, which were farmed biodynamically. Pascal produced powerful wines, fairly heavily extracted in his early vintages but clearly was subsequently moving to a softer approach in 2004 with Pierre Vincent and Sylvie Poillot.

Maison Marchand-Tawse - Beaune et Nuits

Organic

The story of the Maison Marchand-Tawse in Burgundy begins with the extraordinary story of Pascal Marchand, the French Canadian boy wonder, who in 1985 at 22 years old, took the reins of the Clos des Epeneaux in Pommard. He became an overnight sensation, and in the process pretty much defined modern Burgundy. The collaboration of Pascal with another French Canadian, Moray Tawse of the Tawse Winery in Niagara, one of Canada's most recognized wineries, gave birth to the new Maison Marchand-Tawse in 2011. We have worked with Pascal since his beginning in 1985, now a true legend of Burgundy.

Domaine Fernand & Laurent Pillot - Chassagne-Montrachet

In the mid 80's Laurent took over the running of Domaine Pillot, he transformed his family estate from grape growers to one of the more distinguished estates in the Côte de Beaune. Laurent has since transferred his winemaking responsibilities to his son, Adrien. The whites are precise and pure, and not lacking for body and generosity, while the reds are velvety and juicy, beautifully balanced even if drunk young on their expressive Pinot fruit. The domaine was rightfully heralded in Decanter Magazine as 'an address that deserves to be better-known'. Great value and real pleasure across their range.

Eight generations the Mongeard family has been established in Vosne Romanée right in the heart of the Côte de Nuits, producing a very traditional Burgundian style of wine. The vineyard has been known by the name Domaine Mongeard-Mugneret since 1945. The company is currently run by Vincent Mongeard who is passionate and committed to maintaining and improving the family's long standing reputation in the area. The property contains roughly 33 hectares of vineyards spread over 35 appellations. The vineyard is located in the mid-slope, often considered the most prime location in Burgundy. Domaine Pierre Morey et Morey Blanc - Meursault

The wines of Domaine Pierre Morey are of the highest and most celebrated echelon in Burgundy. They have been farmed organically since 1993 and biodynamically since 1998. They are fine and structured yet ever so flavoursome. Pierre remains a constant presence here but it is now his daughter, Anne& Jean-Victor, who run the domaine and its associated négociant operation, Morey-Blanc. The latter is only distinguishable in that these vines are not owned by the family – handling and ageing are identical, taking place in the domaine's cellars.

At only 24 years old, Benjamin Leroux took over winemaking at Domaine Comte Armand from his old mentor, Pascal Marchand. Big shoes to fill for any young winemaker. Yet his first wines in 1999 were hailed as stars of the vintage. After leaving Comte Armand, he focuses on his own winery in Beaune where he has a small négociant business. These wines are pure class and offer some of the best, freshest styles in the region.

Eric has mere 5 hectares of vines, most of which were planted by his grandfather André in the early 1960s. He spent two years sharpening his style with Macon wunderkind Jean-Marie Guffens before returning to the tiny family holding on the steep limestone scree slopes below the dramatic outcrop of Vergisson to make his first vintage.A rich understanding of nature and biodynamics, much of it inherited from his grandfather, has informed his approach to viticulture and winemaking.

Louis Boillot - Gevrey-Chambertin

Louis shares his cellar with his other half, Ghislaine Barthod , under their home in Chambolle. He is part of the Boillot family from Volnay, hence his vineyard holdings in the Côte de Beaune. Since striking out on his own in 2003, he has been able to maximise the potential of his many disparate small parcels – he makes 16 wines from less than seven hectares – many of which are notable for the exceptional age of their vines. He expanded into Moulin-à-Vent in '13 and subsequently into Fleurie, fulfilling a long-held ambition. His and Ghislaine's son Clément is now officially in charge, while Louis focusses on his viticulture. "Non-intervention" is the word here, and Louis prefers to let his old vines speak for themselves. Everything is destalked, and the wines are bottled without fining or filtration.

Alain Gras has been working passionately since 1979 with a great respect for the land. Despite its young age, his domaine has quickly established itself as the standard-bearer for the village of Saint-Romain. It now extends over 30 acres, primarily located in Saint-Romain, Meursault, and Auxey-Duresses. Vinified with care and using traditional methods, the domaine's wines exemplify the character of this terroir, which Alain Gras sums up in three words: fresh, fruity, and elegant.

Domaine Emmanuel Rouget is a top producer, based in Flagey-Echézeaux, and owner of one of the most prestigious vineyards in Burgundy. Emmanuel Rouget is the nephew of the late Henri Jayer, a legendary wine maker from Vosne-Romanée. Emmanuel started working in his uncle's vineyards in 1976 and learned all the techniques from him. In 1996 Henri Jayer retired and transferred his vineyards to Emmanuel Rouget. This wines are still mythical, mainly because of Henri Jayer, but Rouget also continues to produce fabulous wines from his vineyards with a striking minerality and a beautiful ageing potential.

Domaine Forey was established in Vosne-Romanée in 1840 by Régis Forey's great-grandfather. Régis joined his father, Jean, at the Domaine in 1987. Two years later Régis took full control of the Domaine and has recently been joint at by his son Quentin. Régis crafts charming and fine wines while however incorporating more masculinity and roundness into the wines leading to exceptional concentration and depth. On the palate, it is always an explosion of succulent fruit structured by the singular complexity of each terroir and a length that tells a lot about the aging potential.

Domaine Dupont-Fahn - Meursault

In the short time that Raymond Dupont-Fahn took over the family domaine, he has done an outstanding job in producing wines that always punch above their weight. The domaine is situated in the village of Tailly in Meursault, managing a total of 10 hectares around Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Auxey-Duresses.Raymond has cut down on the use of new oak from 40% used by his father to just 10%, with barrels that are no older than three years. He eschews the use of any pesticides in the vineyards, aiming to be as sustainable as he can, and harvests slightly earlier to produce wines with better acidity and lower alcohol. Overall, these are wines that show incredible balance and precision – the raw talent in expressing the terroir from all his lieux-dits is very impressive, and we guarantee you won't find better valued Meursault elsewhere!

Domaine Ramonet - Chassagne-Montrachet

Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Jayer or the Romanee Conti in red," writes Clive Coates. This is the most foremost property in Chassagne, producing marvellous white wines of all levels from village wines through to the famed Montrachet. Established in the late 1920s by Pierre Ramonet, the domaine is now run by Jean-Claude Ramonet and his daughters Anne-France and Clarisse. Fruit from vines under 18 years old is excluded from the domaine`s cuvées, and yields are severely restricted. The wines are vinified using traditional methods and then aged in oak (33% new) for 12-15 months. There is no battonage but there is extended lees contact prior to the first racking. Extraordinary wines!

Domaine Jean Thevenet et Fils - Macon

Organic & Bio-Dynamic

Domaine de la Bongran is no ordinary Mâconnais estate. Since Jean Thévenet took over the domaine in 1972, this Viré-Clessé producer has become a cult name – with Jean a pioneer of organics and minimal intervention, as well as the estate's unique wine style. Based in the village of Quintaine – a hamlet between Viré and Clessé, Jean Thévenet and his son Gautier produce distinct wines that offer astounding value. They pick later than many of their neighbours, producing a richer style of Chardonnay. The wines are naturally generous and full-bodied, but with incredible concentration and amazing freshness.

Le Bourgogne Vigne en Verre - Macon

Bourgogne de Vigne en Verre was established over 40 years ago, in 1981. Its founders recognized that it is extremely difficult to be efficient on the technical side, i.e. handling the wine growing and winemaking, and also be effective on the commercial side. They decided to focus on what they loved doing best, being in their vineyards and wineries, and to outsource the commercial side. We select some great wines here every year which offer but quality and price.

This dynamic 9.5-hectare property is generally recognised as the finest in the village. François and Isabelle Lumpp founded the domaine in 1991, with no inherited vines, and have now been joined by their children, Pierre and Anne-Cécile. The vineyards are planted with the finest materials and very close spacing. Viticulture is fanatical and yields are kept very low. They work as organically as possible during the early part of the growing season and employ limited doses of conventional treatments later on, to avoid tractor usage and compaction of their soils. The reds are sublime, pure, poised and beautifully balanced, ementing their staus as some of Burgundy`s finest, hidden wines and best bargains.

Domaine Francois Mikulski - Meursault

He inherited his first plots of Meursault in 1992 from his late uncle, Pierre Boillot. Since that time, he has relentlessly pursued his authenticity, purity and elegance through acute attention to biological balance in the vineyard and terroir minded élevage practices in the cellar. After meticulous sorting in the vineyards the grapes are de-stemmed and lightly pressed. Natural yeasts are used in the fermentation after which the wines undergo an élevage 10-12 months. François typically restrains his new oak use to about 20%, believing that excessive wood masks full expression of the terroir. (Full list May 2024)

Jura - Domaine Grand

The Grandes have been winemakers from father to son since 1692. Today, it is Emmanuel and Nathalie who manage the 10.5 ha of vines in the Jura. Together, they practice organic and bio-dynamic farming. Having tasted the wines with one of Frances top sommelieres, the wines were a must buy for both the quality and value.

The local grape varieties mingle with those of the relatively nearby Burgundy, such as Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. But Jura's wines owe their originality and reputation to their native varieties Poulsard, Trousseau and Savagnin and to their very distinctive, evolved, sometimes even oxidized character. The famous yellow wines, aged for six years years under a film of yeast are in this category. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is also one of the Jura's great traditions. "Vin de paille" or "straw wine" is another of the Jura's specialities.

VINTAGE 2021 — Bottle | Case (6) | Case (12)

Given the weather, 2021 is not a year of legendary "wow" wines. It marked a return to a more classic (meaning a lower-alcohol, less rich, and powerful) style of Bordeaux that will be ready to drink sooner than recent vintages including 2019 and 2020.

*232	CHATEAU ORMES DE PEZ - Saint-Estephe	2021	44.00	255.00	x
	'The 2021 Ormes de Pez is matured in 45% new oak. This has a fragrant nose, very well defined, in fact, perhaps more sophisticated than the Haut-Batailley at the moment. A very stylish wine.
*233	CHATEAU LA DAME DE MONTROSE - St Estephe	2021	56.00	335.00	x
	The second wine of Château Montrose, La Dame de Montrose is made from the same vineyard as the Grand Vin. Mostly made from Merlot grapes, La Dame de Montrose offers another vision of the Saint-Estèphe terroir. Supple and dominated by notes of red fruit, this wine is more accessible in its youth.

VINTAGE 2020

The 2020 vintage was clearly very warm. The first part of the year, which induced the early flowering, was significantly warmer than 2018 or 2019. The heart of the summer was very marginally cooler, giving a small high quality vintage.

VINTAGE 2018

Bordeaux 2018 will be remembered as an exceptional year, with no shortage of outstanding wines from this extraordinary vintage. The weather was exceptional with a glorious summer extending long into the September and early-October harvest, but the vintage had begun with a bizarrely challenging first half of the growing season.

*236	CHATEAU OLIVIER - Pessac-Leognan Lovely dark plum colour and rich texture. This has clear austerity and is still as discreet as it felt en primeur. Attractive smoke and even slight tar edging; really needs time to soften and show its more inviting fruits. 94/100 Jane Anson	2018	46.00	270.00	x

The Bordeaux 2017 will go down as a year of the frost. After the vintage is clearly a year of the haves and have-nots and somewhere-in-between. For those growers who avoided the frost, they had every chance of making a very good wine.

*250	CHATEAU HAUT DU TERTRE - Margaux Its second wine, the Château keeps the same high quality work with a slightly different conception so that the cuvée can be enjoyed sooner. A ruby red colour and is easy to drink in its early years. We love its roundness and its subtly spicy notes.	2017	33.00	195.00	x
